

Perseverance with Dr. Billy Taylor

Wednesday, December 4, 2013

6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Peckham Conference Center

3510 Capital City Boulevard

Lansing, MI 48906

Billy Taylor was a football star at University of Michigan and drafted by the NFL. His football career was sidelined by drugs, depression, and alcoholism.

Sober since 1997, he now has a doctoral degree and shares his story of perseverance through difficult times. This free event is sponsored by Community Mental Health Authority of Clinton-Eaton-Ingham.

Michigan Partners in Crisis, A Mental Illness and Justice Coalition

Annual Winter Conference

Friday, December 13, 2013

8:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Kellogg Center, MSU, East Lansing

Registration is free. Seating is limited.

Register by Friday, December 6.

Michigan Partners in Crisis is a mental illness and justice coalition dedicated to improving the quality of services and supports available to children and adults with emotional disorders and mental illness. They advocate for treatment in appropriate settings and reducing the over-reliance on the criminal justice system. The annual conference includes presentations on pending mental health court legislation, the Governor's Diversion Council on ways to reduce the incarceration of persons with mental illness, and the progress of the Governor's Mental Health and Wellness Commission. View the complete program here. Register by contacting Partners in Crisis Coordinator Greg Boyd at ghb1@acd.net or 517-802-8285. Please register by Friday, December 6.
